The Dad's Club at Washington Elementary School would like to make wood cut outs which will be painted by students and then attached on the fences around the school along Breed and Euclid. Attached are some pictures:

