Recess Using a near-peer mentorship model, our college student coaches will deliver a blended Social Emotional Learning & Sports program to students during the agreed recess periods. Elevo will also use scaffold ELL concepts during the program. The expected outcomes include the following: - An increase in overall attendance and thus academic success - An increase in recovered ADA funds - A decrease in chronic absenteeism - A decrease in disciplinary referrals and suspensions - Developing a near-peer relationship with college coaches - Students will feel more connected while at school Elevo will work with the school's administration team to collect and analyze available data and carry out student & teacher surveys throughout the duration of the program	684	$75.00	$51,300.00
